ORIGIN [REDACTED]

1. The 26 December 1946 issue of the Rivolta Ideale carried the announcement of the formation of the "Movimento Sociale Italiano", originating from the fusion of the following groups none of which were previously known to the Italian police:

- (a) Movimento Italiano di Unità Sociale
- (b) Fronte del Lavoro
- (c) Unione Sindacale dei Ferrovieri Italiani
- (d) Gruppo Reduci Indipendenti.

2. The movement was launched with a ten-point program of generic and inconclusive content. The program and an appeal to the people, published in the same issue of the paper is signed by an executive giunta, of which none of the members are named. The headquarters of the movement are given as located in Rome at 24 Corse Vittorio Emanuele.

3. It is believed that the attempt made a month ago to establish the "Fronte nazionale della Ricostruzione" failed and this new organization represents a further attempt to create a neo-Fascist front.

4. The organization of the new movement provoked no comment from the other neo-Fascist weeklies, a fact which tends to indicate that the initiative springs from the Rivolta Ideale alone, and that the neo-Fascist camp continues to be uncertain and divided.
